BIOGRAPHICAL PROFILE FOR EACH LECTURER:

Suzanne Hales

Ed.D, LPC, LMFT

Suzanne Hales brings over 36 years of research to her work Healing the Healer. This course is a culmination of a career dedicated to helping physicians find their way to healing as they navigate the ever-changing landscape of modern medicine. Witnessing the pain of physicians coping with their loss of autonomy in the doctor patient-relationship inspired her to create a program of intervention to be applied as early as medical school. Suzanne graduated from the C.G. Jung Institute (Küsnacht) in 2018. She has a private practice in McKinney, TX.

Renate Daniel

Dr. med.

Renate Daniel M.D., a specialist in psychiatry, psychotherapy and psychoanalysis and Director of Programs at the C.G. Jung Institute in Zürich, has been a psychotherapist in private practice for many years. She is the author of Taking the Fear Out of the Night: Coping with Nightmares (2011) as well as numerous published articles.

Janis M. Maxwell

M.S. PhD.

Janis Maxwell is a training analyst at the C. G. Jung Institute, a former Director of Training at the Inter-Regional Society of Jungian Analysts as well as the Philadelphia Jung Institute. She is most interested in developing music as an analytic way to access deep levels of the psyche and promote healing.

Carl Boyer

M.D.

Carl Boyer, M.D. practiced primary-care medicine for twenty years before training as a Jungian analyst. He graduated from the Inter-Regional Society of Jungian Analysts (IRSJA) in 2009. He is currently on the faculty of the CG Jung Institute of New York and serves as director of training for IRSJA. He has a private practice in psychoanalytic psychotherapy and psychopharmacology in New York City.
