FALL - 2019/20

Mo 21.10.2019

Mon	21.10.	09:35 - 11:05 h Lecture	201.	Where is the Gaze of the Father?
				Susan Schwartz, PhD	Festsaal
Mon	21.10.	11:20 - 17:20 h Seminar	251.	Exploring the Transcendent Function and Dissociation of the Psyche
				The emptiness that prevails, the denial of the shadow, the hollowness of our era and the relevance of Jung all are aspects accentuating attention to the dissociation of the psyche and its repair through the transcendent function. It is essential for uniting the psychological fragments, facing the fears and apprehensions and finding internal fulfillment. The question of who am I reverberates as Jung himself recognized the reality of the psyche revealed in the analytic process. Case examples are included, dreams, transference and countertransference as all these aspects of life illuminate the transcendent function necessary for the psyche to become more cohesive.

Jung said: "It [the archetype] persists throughout the ages and requires interpreting anew. The archetypes are imperishable elements of the unconscious, but they change their shape continually" (CW 9i, par. 301).  (students)  Susan Schwartz, PhD	Sala Terrena

Thu	20.02.	11:20 - 17:20 h Seminar	386. = 466.	Qigong and Meditation - A Nonverbal Way to the Self Qigong is an ancient Chinese art of cultivating body, heart (mind) and Qi (life energy). All of the world-famous Chinese sages, such as Lao Tzu, Confucius and Zhuangzi, practiced Qigong as a basic exercise and method of self-strengthening and wisdom gain. Qigong regards people as a whole of body, mind and Qi. In illness, whether physical or mental, changes in Qi are always affected. Therefore, working with Qi (the literal meaning of Qigong), alongside with somatic medicine and psychotherapy, provides additional access to healing. In this workshop, basic theory and the moving form of Qigong are first introduced. The Self from the point of view of Qigong will be explained and meditation methods will be taught to reach the true Self.  (max. 30 students)
